Federal Government Shutdown

Governor Corbett instructed agencies to continue the operation of essential programs, including healthcare, public assistance and public safety, while closely monitoring both the commonwealth's cash position and spending during the 16-day federal government shutdown. Pennsylvania's 2013-14 enacted budget relies on more than $20 billion in federal government funding. Economists project that the shutdown may reduce fourth quarter Gross Domestic Product (GDP) growth by 0.2 to 0.6 percentage points.

- Commonwealth agencies developed contingency plans in case of a protracted federal shutdown.
- No commonwealth employees were furloughed.
- Federal programs continued without interruption.
- An agreement on a broad federal budget was announced on December 10, 2013. Congress needs to enact appropriation bills for FY 2014.

Tobacco Settlement Fund

In September 2013, an arbitration panel hearing the non-participating manufacturer (NPM) adjustment dispute with respect to MSA payments received in 2004 issued a decision adverse to the commonwealth. The Attorney General has challenged the decision and proceedings are pending before the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas. The court is not expected to rule before March 2014 at the earliest. If the arbitrators' decision stands, the commonwealth's MSA payment in April 2014 will be reduced by approximately $180 million.

The April 2014 MSA payment is used to fund 2013-14 appropriations causing immediate and significant impacts on programs supported through the Tobacco Settlement Fund. Funds for some programs have been placed in budgetary reserve to preserve critical entitlement programs, such as Long-Term Care, Medical Assistance for Worker's with Disabilities and Home and Community-Based Care.

Funds Frozen:

- Tobacco Use Prevention & Cessation: $7.2 million
- Health Research: $38.6 million
- Health Research Cancer Institute: $3.1 million
- Uncompensated Care: $25.8 million
- PACENET Expansion: $25.2 million
- Life Sciences Greenhouses: $3.0 million

Challenges Ahead for the 2014-15 Budget

- Addressing pension cost growth of $610 million. ($500 million for school employees' retirement and $110 million for state employees' retirement that agencies must absorb).
- Managing growth in welfare spending in light of continued health care cost inflation and reduced FMAP (more than $300 million).
- Controlling the growth of corrections costs and assessing recommendations proposed by the Disability Rights Network and Department of Justice.
- Monitoring the federal budget and debt ceiling negotiations and the impact on federal funds.
